

The Lushingtons and Their Circle

Monday 6 July 2015

Refreshments from 6.30pm, event 7pm - 9pm

Surrey History Centre

A talk by Dr David Taylor FSA based on his work researching and cataloguing the archive of the Lushington family of Ockham and Cobham.

This extremely important archive provides insights into the lives of numerous well known figures from the Victorian period as well as wonderful snapshots of life in Surrey and London in the second half of the nineteenth century.

Join David for this free talk which will follow the Surrey History Trust AGM.
